QUESTAR ANNOUNCES MANAGEMENT APPOINTMENTS

SALT LAKE CITY — Questar Corp. (NYSE:STR) today announced four management appointments in its corporate area and Questar Regulated Services (QRS) group.

Martin H. Craven, 51, was appointed corporate treasurer and will retain his position as director of investor relations. Craven previously was assistant treasurer and – prior to joining Questar in 1991 – served as assistant treasurer of Utah Power and treasurer of Bonneville Pacific Corp.

Shahab Saeed, Questar Regulated Services (QRS) group vice president, was also named chief operating officer of Questar Energy Services (QES) and president and chief executive officer of Consonus Inc., both QRS subsidiaries. QRS is a subholding company that includes Questar Pipeline, an interstate natural gas pipeline subsidiary, Questar Gas, a retail gas-distribution utility, QES and Consonus. QES provides energy-related products and services, and Consonus operates three data-hosting centers. Saeed, 44, joined Questar in 1981 and previously served as QRS vice president of support services.

Ronald W. Jibson, 50, was named vice president of operations for QRS. Jibson has been a Questar employee since 1980 and served in various engineering and administrative positions within the QRS group.

Kelly B. Maxfield, 50, was named vice president of information technology and administrative services for the QRS group. Maxfield, who joined Questar in 1977, served in management positions with Questar's information-technology, data-hosting and utility affiliates.

Questar is an integrated natural gas company with $4.0 billion in enterprise value. Headquartered in Salt Lake City, Questar engages in gas and oil development and production; gas gathering, processing and marketing; interstate gas transmission and storage; and retail gas distribution.
